

Sep. 20 Field Hockey

Nottingham loses a heart-breaker to Lawrence in overtime

Sep. 20: In a coaching battle between former high school teammates, the Lawrence High field hockey team outdueled Nottingham, 3-2, in overtime today.

Nottingham coach Jen Cicale and Lawrence coach Carlee Cimorelli played together at Hamilton West, and it was Cimorelli's team that emerged victorious when Lindsey Freitag scored her second goal of the game in the second overtime.

Nottingham's Melissa Choe scored off an assist from Lyndsey Buckley, and Nicole Mont forced overtime with an unassisted goal with two minutes remaining.

Northstars goalie Amanda Muziani had another big game with 13 saves.

Hornets play Allentown tough before dropping a 3-1 decision

Once again, the Hamilton West field hockey team played a strong team tight thanks to a nice defensive effort.

The Hornets dropped a 3-1 decision to Allentown today, as goalie Alicia Torres had another big game with 14 saves. The Redbirds (4-2) held a 22-2 shot advantage, and Hamilton (0-3-1) converted on half their shots as Ashley Gordon scored the season's first goal off an assist from Olivia Pangaldi.