

Sep. 26 Girls Soccer

Hamilton's Loran Wyrough (left, 3) greets Sam Barlow with open arms and the two embrace after Barlow's goal tied today's game with West Windsor-Plainsboro South (Photos by Dennis Symons Jr./purchase photos at www.dennissymons.com).

BECKER'S GOAL TIES IT AT 2

Katelyn Becker scores, then celebrates as Steinert ties up Ewing late in the game today (Photo by Mike Dill/purchase photos at www.michaeldillphotography.com).

Becker's late goal helps Steinert salvage tie with Ewing

Sep. 26: Steinert's Katelyn Becker scored the game-tying goal off an assist from Adrianna Boucher with less than 10 minutes remaining and neither team scored again as the Spartans and Ewing played to a 2-2 tie.

Trailing 1-0, Lindsay Usarzewicz scored off a feed from assist. Ewing (2-4-1) reclaimed the lead in the second half before Becker tied it, and neither team could score in overtime.

Briyanna Femia had nine saves for the Spartans (3-3-1).

“Ewing played well, hats off to them,” coach Aimee Turnbull said. “We are fighting in every game and will continue to improve.”

Hornets rally to tie West Windsor-Plainsboro South

Hamilton and West Windsor-Plainsboro South both entered the game with one win, but neither could get No. 2.

The two struggling squads played to a 2-2 tie at West today as Sam Barlow had a goal and an assist for the Hornets (1-5-1), while Loran Wyrrough added a goal and Erin Septer had six saves. WWPS (1-4-1) carried a 2-1 lead into the second half before Barlow tallied to knot it.

Nottingham still seeking first victory

Allentown scored two goals in both the first and second halves to take a 4-0 win over winless Nottingham (0-6) today. Chelsea Toscano made eight saves.

Allentown improved to 7-1-1.