Nottingham rebounds from first loss with win over Hamilton West

Sep. 28: If this is how the Nottingham High boys' soccer team bounces back from every loss, the Northstars won't suffer too many losing streaks this year.

Coming off a setback at Allentown Monday – their first loss of the season – the Northstars took it out on township rival Hamilton with an 8-0 home victory today.

Luca deStasio had two goals and two assists for Nottingham (6-1), while brother Fulvio deStasio had two goals and Uzo Iloka collected two goals and an assist. Tristan Delorme added a goal and two assists and Shiek Bangura scored his second goal in as many games.

Obinna Iloka and Jacoub Kouroume also had assists, while Anthony Pfunder made four saves in his first start in goal this season.

Steinert falls in overtime to Hopewell Valley

Connor Moffat scored a first-half goal off a feed from Alex Seunath, but Hopewell rallied for a goal in the second half and another one early in the first overtime to take a 2-1 victory over the Spartans.

Devin Downs made eight saves for Steinert (3-3-1). Hopewell (5-2-1) won for the fifth time in six games.
