STEINERT FOOTBALL PREVIEW

Head coach: Dan Caruso, 4th season

Last season: 4-6, qualified for CJ III playoffs

Caruso says: I've always been a firm believer you have to learn how to win . . . We're moving in the direction in that we know how to win. It comes with confidence and attitude. These kids believe every time they go out they can win. And whenever they line up across from somebody they believe they're the better guy.

We have a four-year veteran at quarterback in Adam Riese, and he has a lot of receivers he has been throwing to since he was eight years old. We also have a mix of some young skill guys coming in who can step up and contribute. We have a lot of experience on offense.

We're a little inexperienced, a little young defensively. We have a ton of ability but we're a little green. We're hoping to grow up very quickly on the defensive side. Coach (Bob) Ziegler will have them ready. Once we get a few things corrected, we'll be fine. It's always fine to say that you're going to outscore teams with a big offense, but we'd like the offense to outscore other teams put a goose egg up at the same time."
